Father's Day Humor

The story is told of a father of five children who came home with a toy. He summoned his children and asked which of them should be given the present. "Who is the most obedient one here? Who never talks back to Mom and does everything that Mom says to do?" He inquired. There were a few seconds of silence, and then all of the children said in one accord: "You play with it Daddy!"

Fathers are the great gift-givers of the world!"

- Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, founder of Father's Day

Father to teenage son: "No, you can't use the car—but please feel free to use the lawnmower."

- Vern McLellan

Small boy's definition of Father's Day: It's just like Mother's Day only you don't spend so much.

- Unknown

How did Father's Day start?

There are a range of events, which may have inspired the idea of Father's Day. One of these was the start of the Mother's Day tradition in the first decade of the 20th century. Another was a memorial service held in 1908 for a large group of men, many of them fathers, who were killed in a mining accident in Monongah, West Virginia in December 1907.

A woman called Sonora Smart Dodd was an influential figure in the establishment of Father's Day. Her father raised six children by himself after the death of their mother. This was uncommon at that time. Sonora was inspired by the work of Anna Jarvis, who had pushed for Mother's Day celebrations. Sonora felt that her father deserved recognition for what he had done. The first time Father's Day was held in June, 1910. Father's Day was officially recognized as a holiday in 1972 by President Nixon.
